

Public seminar series 2017-2018

Salle Polyvalente/Duyckaerts, B32, 14h

October 10

- José Morais (ULB): Literacy and democracy

November 9

- Johanna Badcock (University of Western Australia): Loneliness and its relationship to mental and physical health across the psychosis spectrum

November 30 ROOM CHANGE: Trifac2 (B33)

- Laurent Mottron (Université de Montréal) : Speech status in autism is more than a clinical specifier, it is a major factor of phenotypical and cognitive heterogeneity

January 9

- Fabrice Berna (CHRU de Strasbourg) : Investigating autobiographical memory to approach disorders of self in schizophrenia

February 20 ROOM CHANGE: Trifac4 (B33)

- Christian Monseur (ULg) : La régression multi-niveau : un outil d'une grande puissance analytique

March 13

- Bruno Rossion (UCL): Understanding brain function with fast periodic visual stimulation

May 8

- Salvatore Campanella (UCL): On the usefulness of cognitive evoked-related potentials in psychopathology

June 12

- Marie Geurten (ULg): Is metacognition domain-specific or domain-general? Insight from studies in memory and arithmetic?